SPORT VISA APPLICATION

Citizens and Permanent Residents of New Zealand, Tuvalu, Samoa, Tonga, Niue, Cook Islands, Kiribati and Pitcairn can apply for a subordinate visa for Italy to the Embassy of Italy in Wellington.

This type of visa allows entry into Italy, for a fixed-term long visit up to a maximum of 365 days and for a trial period (not less than 90 days) for professional, sporting activities either on a self-employed or dependent basis under contracts with sporting organisations based in Italy.

Firstly it will be necessary for the prospective Sports Club in Italy to apply to the local authorities (namely Questura) to obtain the necessary pre-authorisation to the sports visa. The application will then be assessed by the relevant Italian Sporting Federation and the Italian National Olympic Committee (CONI) of the request. If the pre-assessment is positive, CONI will notify the Embassy accordingly.

Please note that the visa application can be processed only after our Embassy has been directly notified by CONI about the positive pre-assessment.

After reception of CONI's notification, a formal application can be submitted by posting to our Embassy (PO box 463, 6140) the following documentation:
