Subject: COUNCIL IMPLEMENTING DECISION suspending the application of certain provisions of Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council in respect of Guinea

suspending the application of certain provisions of Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council in respect of Guinea

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 July 2009 establishing a Community Code on Visas (Visa Code)¹, and in particular Article 25a(5), point (a), thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the European Commission,

Whereas:

- (1) Following an assessment pursuant to Article 25a(2) of Regulation (EC) No 810/2009, the Commission considers that cooperation with Guinea on readmission of irregular migrants is insufficient. Significant improvements in cooperation throughout the readmission process are needed, including ensuring that Guinea cooperates effectively in the identification of irregular migrants, the issuance of emergency travel documents and the organisation of return operations in a timely and predictable manner, in line with the readmission arrangement.
- (2) Persistent challenges remain as regards the identification and return of nationals of Guinea illegally staying on the territory of the Member States. Those challenges are due to the lack of response from, and follow up by, the Guinean authorities to readmission requests in both documented and undocumented cases, difficulties in the issuance of emergency travel documents that are often not provided even where the nationality has already been confirmed and the organisation of return operations on scheduled or charter flights. Furthermore, Guineans constitute the eighth largest identified nationality in terms of irregular arrivals to the Union among the countries assessed under Article 25a(2) of Regulation (EC) No 810/2009, and a considerable backlog of readmission cases has been accumulated.
- (3) Taking into account the various steps taken so far by the Commission to improve Guinea's cooperation in the field of readmission and the Union's overall relations with that third country, the Commission considers that such cooperation remains insufficient and that further action is therefore needed.

- (4) The application of certain provisions of Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 should therefore be suspended for nationals of Guinea who are subject to the visa requirement pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2018/1806 of the European Parliament and of the Council². The objective of that suspension is to encourage Guinea to take the actions necessary to improve cooperation on readmission.
- (5) The provisions temporarily suspended should be those referred to in Article 25a(5), point (a), of Regulation (EC) No 810/2009, namely: the possibility to waive the requirements regarding the documentary evidence to be submitted by visa applicants as referred to in Article 14(6); the general processing period of 15 calendar days referred to in Article 23(1), the suspension of which would, as a consequence, also exclude the application of the rule allowing an extension of that period up to a maximum of 45 days only in individual cases, meaning that the standard processing period would be 45 days; the issuing of multiple-entry visas in accordance with Article 24(2) and (2c); and the optional visa fee waiver for holders of diplomatic and service passports in accordance with Article 16(5), point (b).

² Regulation (EU) 2018/1806 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 November 2018 listing the third countries whose nationals must be in possession of visas when crossing the external borders and those whose nationals are exempt from that requirement (OJ L 303, 28.11.2018, p. 39, ELI: <http://data.europa.eu/eli/reg/2018/1806/oj>).

- (6) This Decision should not affect the application of Directive 2004/38/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council³, which extends the right of free movement to family members of Union citizens, irrespective of their nationality, when joining or accompanying the Union citizen. This Decision should thus not apply to family members of a Union citizen to whom that Directive applies or to family members of a national of a third country enjoying a right of free movement equivalent to that of Union citizens under an agreement between the Union and that third country. This Decision should not apply to family members of UK nationals who are beneficiaries of the Agreement on the withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from the European Union and the European Atomic Energy Community⁴ (the ‘Withdrawal Agreement’), provided that the family members concerned are entitled to join the beneficiary of the Withdrawal Agreement in the host State and apply for a visa for this purpose.
- (7) This Decision should be without prejudice to the obligations of the Member States under international law, including their obligations as host countries of international intergovernmental organisations or of international conferences convened by the United Nations or other international intergovernmental organisations and hosted by Member States. Thus, the temporary suspension should not apply to nationals of Guinea applying for a visa where this is necessary for Member States to comply with those obligations.

³ Directive 2004/38/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 29 April 2004 on the right of citizens of the Union and their family members to move and reside freely within the territory of the Member States amending Regulation (EEC) No 1612/68 and repealing Directives 64/221/EEC, 68/360/EEC, 72/194/EEC, 73/148/EEC, 75/34/EEC, 75/35/EEC, 90/364/EEC, 90/365/EEC and 93/96/EEC (OJ L 158, 30.4.2004, p. 77, ELI: <http://data.europa.eu/eli/dir/2004/38/oj>).
